It was designed to be months in Austria where he direct is supplementary meal in the hope ed the daily feeding of more than that the children would receive led,000 starving children for the cone feed at home. This is true in European Relief council, Elimer G many cases, but in many it is not Furland today related an intimate by these systences the American story of conditions in central Eur moult which is provided at a cost to American charity of only three cents

The Austrian crown, normally a all that stands between the chilworth about 25 cents, now has a dren and death by starvation. In talize of one-sixth of a cent. This. he said, made it absolutely imposlible for the Austrians to purchase anything outside of their own country except in the few smaller surrounding nations where the money s almost equally depreciated. The value is graphically illustrated by be salary of the Austrian president. 100,000 crowns per year. In American purchasing power that is just 1166. For him to purchase three good suits of clothes here would take his entire year's anlary

The decrease in the purchasing power of Austrian money, in the terms of the commodities of other untions," said Mr. Burland, "has forced Austria to live from the products of her own soil. And as the products of this soil cannot possibly provide more than 50 per cent
